“ I am completely shocked. I used to work at Valtronics and left in October of 2012 to pursue another job. I just was browsing the Valtronics website and saw the notice. I am sad that I was unable to attend the funeral because I didn't know. My prayers go out to the family and friends of this nice man. He was certainly a joy to work with. - Natasha Parsons##imported-begin##Natasha Parsons##imported-end##

“ I never called Shelton by his name, I always called him Angel, because he was my angel here on earth...and now in heaven. He had the most amazing heart, soul and ears. Full of jokes and it was simply second nature for him to put a smile on your face no matter what could be going on. I was going to fly up to Charleston to see him this past labor day weekend, but my oldest daughter had just gotten a job and I couldn't leave her the car without a licence. I wished I would have made other arrangements so I could have seen him one last time. To me he was almost like a father figure/best friend wrapped up in one wonderful person. I miss him terribly. My condolences goes out to his family. May God take care of my sweet Angel.##imported-begin##Brenda Cantu##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy in your loss. My father Floyd 'Skinny' Goodwin worked with Shelton at Columbia Natural Gas in the 1990's. My father thought a lot of Shelton and spoke of him very highly. After Daddy retired, Shelton would drop in to see him--which always meant a lot to my father.##imported-begin##Karen Goodwin Bradley##imported-end##

“ To Billy and the entire Mutter family: My deepest condolences and prayers are sent your way. At times like these, it so hard to find human words that can adequately express your depth of sorrow or measure of comfort; however, I do want you to know that you are in my prayers and would like to share with you the word of the Lord that says He will never leave nor forsake you. Cast your cares upon Him because He cares for you and will give you strength and peace like none other. After having experienced 2 deaths of close family members within the past year, I know that the Lord will sustain you as He is not a respecter of persons. Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning! God Bless You!##imported-begin##Sharon Gatling##imported-end##

“ What is it like to lose one of your closest friends? Disbelief and a heartbreak that is inconsolable.
We loved each other even though we disagreed on who was more intelligent ;.
We were there for each other and talked every day, I will miss that the most.
I will see you in my dreams. We will meet again one day and be surrounded by all our goldens.

I love you,
