“ To the Griffin Family,

For Christians, death is a time of countless emotions. A lot of these emotions are associated to love. Because of God’s saving love for us, we are graced with everlasting life. Because of our love for Steve, we mourn the loss of a love one that touched our lives in special and unique ways: a man who was a father, a uncle, a charmer and a friend.

Hopefully, we can look back lovingly at Steve’s life here on earth and celebrate his new life in Heaven. From my own experiences with the death of those who have touched my life, I realize their spirit remains with me. I have no doubt Steve’s spirit will remain with us as we continue through this journey called life.

I pray that each of you will find comfort during this time and that our families continue to make and share countless memories together.

May Steve’s soul and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.##imported-begin##Steven Hardt##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my condolences to the family. This time for you is undoubtedly very painful and so may you find comfort from “the God of all comfort” 2 Cor. 1:3, 4 who can help you to cope with your grief. It can be so hard to face each day without your loved one, but the love and support of family and friends and, of course, our loving Creator, can help to ease the pain and sorrow. Again, please accept my sincere condolences.##imported-begin##K. Nichols##imported-end##
