“ Diana,

Please accept our most sincere condolences upon the loss of your dear mother. The loss of anyone close to us diminishes us, but the loss of your mother is deeper still. She is the one who cooperated with God's Grace to give you life and nurture you and form you. But now she is with the Lord and we must gather to share in her joy and celebrate her life. May God send His Holy Spirit to comfort you and your entire family.

All our Love,
