“ Thelma was, without a doubt, a loving and caring friend. She dedicated her life to taking care of others - family, friends and neighbors alike. She was an example for us all.

She loved to cook, do crafts, and work in her yard, but most of all she loved to just sit and visit and share stories for hours.

Thelma was one of several close neighbors that made Sterling Point a wonderful place to grow up. I have many fond memories of her and will miss her deeply.##imported-begin##Cary A. Fedei##imported-end##

“ Thelma was such a joy to know. She was a blessing to us and our family. Always happy, never complaining, always thinking of others. She loved to reminisce of old times with Chris. She is one that this world will truly be less without. We love you Thelma.##imported-begin##Chris & Carolyn Duncan##imported-end##
