Theresa "Terry" Augusta Cowie, 95, passed away peacefully in her sleep on May 15, 2013. She was born and raised in New York City, New York. She lived for 48 years in Levittown, PA where she raised her family with her loving husband of 60 years, Robert S. Cowie, who predeceased her.

“ As the last remaining Second Generation "cousin" of a tightly knit German family, Terry was an inspiration to many of us who are the Third Generation "cousins" and feel great love for one another as well. It is through the dedication of these elders that we feel as great a link to one another as we do. They were indeed "The Greatest Generation" and taught us so much. We will miss her greatly, she had the most beautiful penmanship in the world, and I always tried to emulate it. She will be fondly remembered for it every time I pick up a pen.##imported-begin##Lauren Augusta Yarema##imported-end##
