Tribute Wall

“ Barborie and Robert, My deepest condolences to you both on TJ's passing. I have wonderfully fond memories, from my earliest childhood, of being welcomed into your home and hearts. I will forever treasure the privilege and confidence given to me as Robbie's third grade teacher. Blessings and my prayers on your behalf as you learn to cherish memories that will sustain you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Thelma Mountcastle Thornton##imported-end##

“ You may not remember me. I am Aunt Rosa's great-nephew, son of Jessie Carroll Oliver. We would stop by your house to visit Aunt Rosa in her later years. I am so sorry to learn of TJ's death. I had wondered about you because we lost track after Aunt Rosa passed away. Please know that you both are in my thoughts during this difficult time. With warmest regards, Jim you may remember me as Jimmie##imported-begin##Jim Oliver##imported-end##
