“ *Dear Wallace Family,
I am so blessed to have had the chance to share in Thomas' life. He offered far more to me than I could have ever given to him. I learned life lessons that I am able to share through my work with other children. He is our angel watching over us, smiling over us. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of his life.

“ I am really speechless and heartbroken but all I can say is that I am so very sorry for your loss. I don't really know why God puts people in our lives and then takes them away and that's something I will never understand. But I hope as time goes on that God gives your family peace. My prayers are with you guys, I love you all you are like family to me. If you need anything don't hesitate to call.##imported-begin##Samantha Lepresti##imported-end##

Oh, how happy they must be today--together again--with Becky, the nurturer, taking care of Thomas. May God bestow his blessings on you and your family.##imported-begin##Janice & L.E. “ *"I'll lend you for a little time a child of Mine," he said.
"For you to love the while he lives and mourn for when he's dead.
It may not be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three,
But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you, and shall his stay be brief,
You'll have his lovely memories as solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth return,
But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes I have selected you.
Now will you give him all your love, nor think the labor vain,
Nor hate Me when I come to call to take him back again?"
I fancied that I heard them say, "Dear Lord, Thy will be done!
For all the joy Thy child shall bring, the risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may
And for the happiness we've known forever grateful stay;
But shall the angels call him much sooner than we've planned
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand"*
