“ Dear Mr Milt & Sons,
Will keep you all in my prayers during this difficult time. Please keep emailing me Mr. Milt I enjoy hearing from you and know that you both are very special to me. You have no idea how much influence both of you were to me and how grateful to have you both touch my life. You didn't even get mad when I swiped your car! Mrs. Vi made the first homemade lemonade I had ever had. RIP Mrs. Vi and thank you!###imported-begin##Margie Blair###imported-end##

“ We are sad for ViEva's passing. She was a great lady, full of energy most of her 85 years on this earth, always a smile, the perfect hostess and charitable to those in need. She lived every day with zest and style. She taught my husband and me much about what is important in life. Vi and I were as close as any two sisters might be. Our hearts are broken as we pray for Milt and his family. Fritz and I will miss her.###imported-begin##Pat and Fritz Haberman###imported-end##

“ Aunt Vi, a lovely, lovely woman, caring mother, devoted wife, kind and caring friend. The world was a better, brighter place for her presence. Sadness now will be replaced with sweet memories and joy upon reflection. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with the Monteaux family, now and always.##imported-begin##Stevi Eanes##imported-end##
