

Viola Vi Foytik

November 12, 2012 - November 12, 2012

PORTSMOUTH – Viola Vi Foytik, 85, passed away Nov 4, 2012. Born Nov 6, 1926 in Needsville, TX to the late William and Mathilda Kulcak, Vi was a first generation Czech-American. For most of her adult life she lived in Portsmouth as a devoted wife and mother of 4 sons of whom she was very proud. She was a faithful Catholic who rarely missed a service, attending St. Paul's Catholic Church and, more recently, the Church of St. Therese. She was a member of KJZT Katolicka Jednota Zen Texaskych, A Fraternal Benefit Society founded in 1894 by Czech Catholic women.

She is predeceased by her husband, Edward. Left to cherish her memory are her sisters Pauline Dybala, Jane Stavinoha and husband Ray, and Mary Kulcak; her sons Russell and wife Evelyn, Darryl and wife Allison, Kirby and wife Debbie, and Rodney. Vi was beloved by her grandchildren Jeremy Foytik and wife Tami, Jennifer Singleton and husband James, Peter Foytik and wife Val, Jacob Foytik and wife Summer, Laura, David, and Katie Foytik, and Michael and Kelsey Lassiter; and great-grandchildren Elizabeth, Declan, Amelia, Cullen, Addyson, and Jasmine.

Father Kevin O'Brien will preside over the Liturgy of the Resurrection which will be celebrated Tuesday Nov 13, 11:00 AM, at the Church of St. Therese, Portsmouth Blvd. Viewing will be held one hour prior to the service. Burial at Greenlawn Memorial Gardens will follow the service. Following graveside, the family will receive friends at the home of Kirby and Debbie Foytik. In lieu of flowers a memorial donation can be made to the American Heart Association; <http://www.heart.org/HEARTORG/> .
