“ Tranley, Diane & Steve and family, I was saddened to hear of your Mom's fall and subsequent passing. Our prayers are with you as you grieve but not as those who have no hope. I know as well as anyone that your Mom loved the Lord and is now with Him in glory.

Your mom meant a great deal to me -- especially in my teen years and even in later years when we would visit during our trips home to Portsmouth. She always took time to listen and just be available when I would stop over -- usually without notice. She often provided wise counsel when I really needed it. Indeed, your mom and grandmother were like aunts to me and often provided a wonderful refuge.

The memories of growing up on Hawthorne Lane (from age 4 to 17) are inseparable from the memories of your family and especially your mom.

“ Mrs. DeHaven was one of the strongest women I have ever had the privilege to know. I am excited for her to know that all her suffering and devotion to her family all those yours has ended in heaven with a joyful reunion with all her loved ones that have passed before herself. A party to be envious of for sure. My heart goes out to all the loved ones she left behind.
