“ On April 26, 2011 Heaven received a truly one of a kind lovely lady that will be greatly missed by me and my family. My sympathies go out to her loved ones. Virginia and Ham became life-long friends with my Grandparents, Margaret and Johnny Cagle after meeting in Prentis Park many, many years ago. Virginia has always been family to me. She's one of the most caring, sweetest, soft-spoken and sincerest ladies I've ever had the pleasure of having in my life. A few years ago while having lunch with Virginia, my Popa and my Mom, she gave my two Hummels from her curio and I jokingly told her I'd named the girls Margaret & Virginia. She laughed and said "I think that's alright" and I've treasured them ever since. I figure that Virginia and my Nanee are talking each others ears off and giving Ham and my Popa a fit. Virginia will always have a special place in my heart...Love, Jennifer Boone###imported-begin###Jennifer Boone###imported-end##

“ My Mom met my "Aunt Begina" while strolling their babies in Prentis Park in Portsmouth. Virginia finally said hello."Well I was wondering if you were going to speak." Mom said. That set the tone for a life long friendship. Often we would met for lunch and they would just laugh and laugh while retelling antics. Virginia was always like my second mom. My mom passed in 1998,my dad in 2009,there is no one that remembers my childhood. I am truly a orphan. virginia is deeply loved and will be much missed. “ Virginia was loved by her sisters, Amelia, Rebecca, Nancy and her departed siblings; Mary, David, Charles and Betty Lou Sadlers. She was a dear gentle loving sister. I will miss her love warm welcome smile and hug. We became close; when my husband, Maurice "Moose" and I moved to Chesapeake in 1965. Our children Lee and Lisa was babies. We made many happy memories with Ham, Virginia & Gary, trips to Nags Head; watching Gary perform with the "Swinging Machines". My love and memories of Virginia will go on forever. I was happy to visit with Virginia before I left for London, she was sitting up and we had a happy visit. She is happy in Heaven with Ham and Gary and other departed siblings.
