

Wilbur Lee Harrell

November 26, 2009

Wilbur Lee Harrell, 88, passed away on Thanksgiving Day November 26, 2009. He was a native of Portsmouth, a life-long member of Port Norfolk Baptist Church, and also a member of the Walter Gardner Coffee Club. Mr. Harrell was a member of Tidal Wave Masonic Lodge #273 and the Portsmouth Scottish Rite Bodies. He retired from Norfolk Naval Shipyard and was an Army Veteran of WWII and was a Purple Heart Recipient. Mr. Harrell is survived by his wife of 68 years, Corinne Grady Harrell; Judith Harrell Kunold, and Lee Harrell Bartlett and her husband, Randolph W. Bartlett; 3 grandchildren Dana Lin Copeland, Patrick D. Bartlett and Charles T. Bartlett; a brother Gordon B. Harrell. He was predeceased by his brother, Melvin Harrell and 2 sisters, Mary Harrell Doughtie and Eleanor Harrell Garner.

A memorial service to celebrate his life will be held at 11:00 a.m. Monday in Port Norfolk Baptist Church by Rev. Terry Taylor and Dr. Ector L. Hamrick with visitation to follow in the church reception hall. Loving Funeral Home, Churchland Chapel is handling the arrangements and condolences may be made at www.lovingfuneralhome.com The family suggest memorial contributions to Port Norfolk Baptist Church

Tribute Wall

“ The Staff of Grace Presbyterian Church sends there love, prayers and sincere sympathy to the entire Harrell Family.##imported-begin##Teri Estes##imported-end##

November 29, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ My deepest sympathy to your family as you go through these difficult days. I pray that as you share memories and stories, you will treasure this time you share together. May you find comfort in one another and the hope that we know in our risen Lord. We love you, Lee, and are praying for you and your family.##imported-begin##Shannon Kiser##imported-end##

November 28, 2009 at 12:00 AM