“ Tammy, Vernon and family, your Dad was a long time friend of my family. My Dad and I enjoyed fishing along side Skinny at the CBBT especially in the late seventies and early eighties when we caught so many large grey trout. Later in life after I moved to the Eastern Shore, Skinny kept in touch with my Dad and they enjoyed talking fishing, hunting and those big tomatoes he so generously shared. Dad passed away 3 years ago and he enjoyed Skinny's frequent visits. Be comforted in the good memories you have and trust in God and he will always get you through times like these. I hope Skinny's love for the outdoors will be carried on by you and your children.##imported-begin##Art Saunders##imported-end##
