

William C. Lampkins

March 29, 2025

William C. Lampkins, 72, went to be with the Lord on March 29th, 2025. William became a brick-mason, scuba instructor, and eventually a commercial waterman on the Chesapeake Bay in his boat, Traveler.

William loved the water, whether he was scuba diving, working to provide for his family, or vacationing in the Outer Banks, these were happy memories for him. He was a loving husband, proud father of 2 sons, and proud grandfather of 2 grandkids.

He has joined his wife, Mary Lampkins; son, John Lampkins; and his cat, Gato; in Heaven.

William is survived by his son Jim Lampkins, daughter-in-law Bell, and grandson Ace. He is also survived by his granddaughter Lauren Lampkins and her mother Julie. William's memory will also be cherished by his sisters Constance Killian and Victoria Lynch, and brother in law Bill Lynch.

Tribute Wall

VE

“ Bill as we call him was my neighbor. We had many afternoon chats about his deep sea diving for oysters. He loved diving and missed it very much. I would often make banana muffins for these talks because he also loved them. He will always be remembered. RIP my friend.

Valarie English - April 30, 2025 at 05:46 PM

ME

I am so very sorry to learn of Bill's passing. I just found out although it's been almost a year. I have thought about him often and prayed for his health and happiness. My condolences go out to all of Bill's family and friends.

Marcia Moss Edmondson - February 17 at 11:29 AM