“ Lance,
I know you as Wes. I did not hear of this tragic news until Sunday, misunderstood the last name, and did not make the connection until today. I am so sorry for your loss. I hope that you will remember how much your dad loved you and wanted you to succeed. Please come and see me at school if I can help you in any way.

“ What is it that we remember when we think of Chip? I think everyone who knows him very well would agree with me on this. It was his sense of humor. He was the kind of person that would make everyone laugh. He was so easy going and all felt comfortable around him. That is what I will truly miss about Chip. He could make me laugh when ever we talked to one another. He always cheered me up when he knew I was having a bad day. That’s the trademark of Chip. He always wanted to make people happy.

Chip’s death was sudden. I remember when I heard the news I simply could not believe it. Chip was too young, but as it slowly occurred to me I have realized that Chip indeed lived his life wonderfully. Chip was a dedicated father and husband and was getting ready to start a new part of his life with his fiancée Cindy. He was so well-loved and he had done many things on earth and I’m sure he’ll do much more in heaven. I will forever be grateful for having the opportunity to know him for 15 years of my life. All the memories I have shared with him will forever be cherished and remembered. Chip will forever live in my memory, and in all our hearts.##imported-begin##Mike Barrett##imported-end##
