“ Lisa and family, Bill will be missed by all who knew him. It seems like only yesterday when Bill and general maintenance were in warehouse 4D. His skills with wood, were second to none, and you never wanted to play opposite him, on the pool table. I will never forget how he made this wonderful wooden cross for a deceased soul. What a good friend Bill was. May God bless you, and your family in this time of loss.

“ Sandy & I are so saddened to hear about Bill's passing, Bill was such a good friend, father, husband and Grandfather! My favorite memory of Bill was when my wife and I were at Busch Gardens with our son Bobby about a hundred or more yards away from the kids area when we heard, Cory, get your little butt down here, I turned to my wife and said do you want to meet the Nelson's? She said did you just see them, I said nope I just heard Bill and sure enough we walked over and there they were. You could never miss Bill's booming voice! He has been referred to as a gentle giant and that was so True! Another thing that was so very true was his love for Lisa, his children and his grand children! You will be missed my friend, rest in piece. Lisa, we are so sorry we don't be able to make it as we are out of town but please know that you and the rest of Bill's family is on our deepest thoughts and prayers! Love, Bob & Sandy Siverd

“ Bill Nelson. When I think of him two words come to mind “know how”. He came to the waterfront at a young age. I interviewed him for his job in my office in warehouse 4C at NIT long ago. He was eager to please and seemed to have skills developed well beyond his years. I instantly took a liking to him. He set about to prove his ability over 40 years at the Port. Bill knew how to build anything you could imagine and did so with a pleasant smile and a willingness to please everyone. Now that I think of him he was just like his Dad who also worked for the company as well. The Nelson/McGee family contributed significantly to who we were and how we interacted with fellow workers and customers. Lisa and Bill were fully involved in Cory’s baseball career and I remember seeing them all together at a game between Shenandoah and Christopher Newport. Bill the quiet big gentle man, Lisa the consummate cheerleader and Cory the big man home hitter. All together enjoying America’s pastime. He will be greatly missed by his family, friends and co-workers.

“ I am stunned and saddened to hear of Bill's passing. Please accept my prayers, thoughts, and love, Lisa, and the rest of Bill's family. Bill is in God's loving arms, and I am not concerned about him. It is you, Lisa, that i want to send my strength to.

A story about Bill... I never worked directly with Bill at VIT; He was in facilities and I was in cranes. But later on I had the honor of being Bill's boss. I could always count on several things from Bill: he would always always tell me the truth even when the truth was not easy; he would always give 100% performing his work; he would always find something good to say to everybody, including me, in his wanderings around the terminal, taking care of us all. Bill had that ability to remind me to "Have a great day, boss!", and every time I was pretty sure he was actually telling me "Do the right thing. Make the right decision. Be good to your people, because they are what makes this all work." Now... how exactly was he able to say all that to me by asking me to have a great day???

I have read others in these postings describe Bill as a gentle giant. Yep. Bill could have been intimidating... but he preferred to be inviting.

I will miss sharing this world with you, buddy. Please save a place for me in Heaven. I look forward to laughing with you again.

“ Bill and Lisa were some of the best player parents David and I had. They were always behind the scenes doing things that no one notice. They were mentors to other parents. We will always be grateful for their support. Bill was the softest big man I have ever met.
