“ Zach and I were friends since our first class together in 4th grade all the way through highschool. I remember everyday he would bring a bag of banana peppers to lunch in intermediate school and being that we were all in fourth grade we thought that was the craziest thing to bring to lunch but he would always share them with us. I just learned that he passed away, my condolences to his family.

“ Zach was one of "my boys" growing up in the neighborhood. He gave me the nickname "Mama Walters ". My memories of and with Zach and my boys are so wonderful. Zach was a beautiful soul full of love , kindness, and generosity. He was a joker and a prankster. He never turned away anyone in need of help. After losing his Dad, his hero, at 17, he stepped up to fill those shoes. He did just that by being the same generous, loving, stand-up kind of man his father was. I will forever miss my boy and hearing those words, "Mama Walters..." but I'll keep his memory and love in my heart. I pray that all the memories and tributes bring comfort to Zach's friends and family.
